Applying for a Tertiary Transport Concession Card

Complete this application form to obtain a Tertiary Transport Concession Card (TTCC). You must carry your TTCC and a valid student identification card with you at all times when travelling - this is your proof of entitlement to travel on a concession fare on public transport services.

What you need to do

- Step 1 - Complete Part A and sign the declaration.
- Step 2 - Ensure that Part B is completed by your educational institution.
- Step 3 - Send the completed form to either:
 - Email - tertiary@translink.com.au (as a PDF file not exceeding 8MB); or
 - Post - Tertiary Transport Concession Card
PO Box 1139
Eagle Farm Qld 4009

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for a TTCC you must meet all of the following criteria:

- reside in Queensland; and
- be enrolled in and attending a course:
 - at a university, TAFE or other post-secondary institution in Queensland (unless otherwise approved by the Department of Transport and Main Roads) that is registered with the department; and
 - that is approved by Centrelink for Austudy, Abstudy or Youth Allowance purposes, or studying at a post-graduate level; and
- be a full time* student enrolled on an internal basis.

*To be considered full time:

- a university student must be enrolled full time, as deemed by their university; or
- students attending an institution other than a university must be enrolled in a course of study requiring at least 12 hours per week of classes for a minimum course duration of 12 weeks.
